OCP | SINCE 1998

Rob McGarry
Senior Associate

Rob is an Senior Associate who earned his real estate sales license from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in 2022. Prior to joining OCP, he graduated from University of South Carolina where he majored in business and economics.

Rob arrived at OCP with business experience after serving as the Director of Finance and Sales for a successful student run start-up that he founded, partnered with the Darla Moore School of Business.

A Rhode Island native, Rob has spent the last seven summers leading hundreds of commercial fishing charters in the waters off of Block Island. There, he had an opportunity to hone his client service and network building skills through relational leadership and a keen focus on providing an excellent and exciting experience for each of his charter clients.

At OCP, Rob strives to deliver exceptional levels of client service and communication as he develops a sales and leasing specialization along the Rte I-495 North corridor in Massachusetts.
